

50-Question Test

Name _____
Period _____
Date _____

THE TRUE CONFESSIONS OF CHARLOTTE DOYLE

Avi

I. TRUE-FALSE

If the statement is true, mark it T; if false, mark it F.

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| I 1. Charlotte expects the voyage across the Atlantic to be pleasant.            | I 9. Eventually Charlotte concludes that the captain is mad.                                       |
| T 2. Charlotte remembers details of the voyage because she kept a journal.       | F 10. Captain Jaggery never confesses that he killed Mr. Hollybrass.                               |
| F 3. The porters tell Charlotte that Captain Jaggery will take good care of her. | F 11. Charlotte pushes the captain overboard.  |
| I 4. At first Captain Jaggery reminds Charlotte of her father.                   | I 12. Before being reunited with her family, Charlotte expects them to be proud of her adventures. |
| F 5. Charlotte has no suspicion that the captain is working the crew too hard.   | F 13. Charlotte believes throughout the book that wealth determines a person's character.          |
| T 6. Charlotte proves her fitness to join the crew by climbing the mast.         | F 14. Charlotte is overjoyed when the voyage is safely over.                                       |
| I 7. After being accused of murder, Charlotte agrees to be judged by the crew.   | F 15. Charlotte finds it easy to return to being a proper young lady.                              |
| F 8. At her trial, Charlotte admits that her working with the crew is unnatural. |   |

continued

II. MATCHING

Match each quotation with the character who said it.

- |   |                    |
|---|--------------------|
| E 16. "In my world, judgments as to rights and wrongs are left to my Creator, not to children." | a. Charlotte Doyle |
| D 17. "It may well be that Miss Doyle will have use for a friend."                                     | b. Mrs. Doyle      |
| C 18. "Order, Miss Doyle, order is all."   | c. Captain Jaggery |
| A 19. "I've come to be one of the crew."   | d. Zachariah       |
| B 20. "Charlotte, you mustn't contradict your father."   | e. Mr. Grummage    |

III. MULTIPLE CHOICE

Select the best answer to complete each statement.

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| D 21. Charlotte has been raised to be aa. singer.b. sailor.c. leader.d. lady.  | C 25. Charlotte responds to Zachariah's gift witha. surprise.b. delight.c. horror.d. indifference.   |
| B 22. As Charlotte waits on the docks, she seesa. the children with whom she is to travel.b. a stowaway climbing on board.c. a storm brewing.d. an old family friend.  | D 26. Zachariah says that a ship's captain is judge, jury, anda. police officer.b. court of appeal.c. warden.d. hangman.   |
| A 23. The sailor who brings Charlotte her trunka. warns her that she should not be on the Seahawk alone.b. shows her how to open the porthole in her cabin.c. promises to teach her how to climb the rigging.d. tells her that another girl will share her cabin. | B 27. The men on the Seahawk joined the crew toa. escape the law.b. get revenge on Captain Jaggery.c. make a profit.d. find adventure.                    |
| C 24. When he first meets Charlotte, Zachariah gives her aa. gold coin.b. carving of the ship's figurehead.c. knife.d. silk scarf.   | D 28. Charlotte thinks that Zachariah's warnings area. the ramblings of an old man.b. meant to scare her.c. intended to protect her.d. criticism of his betters. |

The True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle—Page 3

- D 29. The captain asks Charlotte to let him know if she
- needs anything.
  - has any complaints about the food.
  - is treated rudely by the crew.
  - sees a round robin.
- C 30. When Charlotte shows the captain her weapon, she
- asks him to store it for her.
  - insists that he teach her how to use it.
  - lies to keep Zachariah out of trouble.
  - cannot conceal her fear.
- A 31. In Part One, Charlotte's relations with the crew become increasingly
- friendly.
  - distant.
  - hostile.
  - suspicious.
- B 32. The attempted mutiny fails because
- most of the crew remain loyal.
  - Charlotte warns the captain.
  - Zachariah calms the crew.
  - Captain Jaggery promises to be more lenient.
- C 33. Zachariah forgives Charlotte because
- she is only a girl.
  - she did the right thing.
  - the captain used her.
  - the mutiny was doomed from the start.
- A 34. Charlotte interrupts Zachariah's flogging by
- trying to throw the whip overboard.
  - cutting one of the sails loose.
  - appealing to the captain's kind nature.
  - threatening to report the abuse to her father.
- A 35. Charlotte regains the men's trust by
- joining the crew.
  - making a public apology.
  - swearing an oath of allegiance to Keetch.
  - promising to testify against the captain.
- C 36. Charlotte is suspected of murder because
- she has a violent temper.
  - Fisk accuses her.
  - her handkerchief and knife are found with the dead man.
  - she called Mr. Hollybrass a cruel despot.
- D 37. The captain finds Charlotte guilty and sentences her to
- confinement in the brig.
  - 40 lashes.
  - be shot.
  - be hanged.
- C 38. Charlotte does not reveal that Zachariah is still alive because
- she feels guilty for doubting his friendship.
  - Fisk threatens to kill her if she speaks.
  - she believes he is the only one who can expose Captain Jaggery.
  - she think it's dishonorable to reveal a secret.
- B 39. Charlotte's attempt to get the captain's guns fails because
- Zachariah is discovered hiding in the hold.
  - Keetch betrays the plan she made with Zachariah.
  - the captain puts her in chains.
  - her hands tremble too much to use the key.
- D 40. Captain Jaggery tries to get Charlotte to cover up his crimes by
- appealing to her sympathy for his daughter.
  - promising to protect Zachariah in return for her silence.
  - threatening to tell her father that she led the mutiny.
  - offering to forgive her if she will dress and act like a passenger.

50-Question Test—continued

The True Confessions of Charlotte Doyle—Page 4

- C 41. Captain Jaggery tries to turn the crew against Charlotte by saying that she
- shirks her duties.
  - is going to ask her father to fire them all.
  - is an unnatural girl trying to act like a man.
  - has become insane.
- C 42. After Captain Jaggery's death, the crew
- avoids Charlotte.
  - elects Zachariah captain.
  - asks Charlotte to act as captain.
  - becomes totally disorganized.
- C 43. Charlotte and the crew decide to
- tell the truth about the voyage even if no one believes them.
  - ask for a full investigation by port authorities.
  - say that Captain Jaggery died heroically during the storm.
  - erect a memorial to the captain and Mr. Hollybrass.
- D 44. After Charlotte's father reads her journal, he
- praises her courage.
  - is horrified by Captain Jaggery's brutality.
  - suggests that she study sailing and navigation.
  - burns it and accuses her of making up tales.
- D 45. Charlotte decides to
- settle into her family's orderly life.
  - marry a captain when she grows up.
  - remember her shipmates forever.
  - run away to the Seahawk.

IV. MATCHING

Match each action with its consequence.

- B 46. Captain Jaggery beats Mr. Cranick brutally.
- C 47. The crew's complaints about the captain are dismissed by the admiralty courts.
- A 48. Charlotte tells the captain that she has seen a round robin.
- E 49. The captain believes he has been insulted in front of the crew.
- D 50. Mr. Hollybrass accuses the captain of sailing into the hurricane.
- Mr. Cranick dies, and Zachariah is beaten.
  - Mr. Cranick loses an arm.
  - The crew plans a mutiny.
  - The first mate is murdered.
  - The captain begins to hate Charlotte.

50-Question Test—continued